Abstract

The aim of this study is to examine the articles published between 1997 and 2015 on national and international issues related to battlefield tourism. The literature survey on battlefield tourism was obtained from the database of the Uşak University e-library. 51 articles from 1997 to 2015 were taken into consideration. As a result of the study, it was determined that the tourists related to the battlefields were made to determine the reasons of satisfaction, motivation and visit.
